

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN.

WHOLE NO. 116.

BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY, JULY 11, 1885.

Price, $2.00 PER YEAR.

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

News and Home Reading.

Published at Bloomfield, N. J.

Over the Post Office.

From 7:15 to 9 o'clock, p. m.

Published on Tuesday and Friday.

Special Notice.

The office is open Tuesday and Friday evenings, from 7:15 to 9 o'clock, for the purpose of receiving contributions to the citizens' fund, and for the purpose of receiving notices of persons who wish to be added to the list of contributors.

Contributions should be sent to the office, and not to the post office, and not to the bank, and not to the store, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

office, and not to the

The Milky Water.

Dear Citizen:

Please tell us all about the "milk and water" which have been receiving this week through the water-pipes. Has the cow fallen into the well?

L. J.

Bloomfield 9 July, 1885.

This is a very pertinent inquiry but was replied to late for answer this week. Enc.

School of the Sacred Heart.

On Thursday afternoon, July third, a large company of young and old folks assembled in Union Hall to listen to the closing exercises of the school connected with the Church of the Sacred Heart.

The various parts of the programme were supported entirely by the children, and their instructors must have been moved with a feeling of pride for the commendable manner in which each one executed his or her part. The school has 200 scholars, under the charge of our Sisters.

The reports of the several departments, as read by the pastor during the exercises, proved that the scholars had shown a proper interest in their work during the past year.

The programme was as follows:

1.—Chorus: "The Greeting."

2.—Dialogue: "The Runaways."

3.—Duet: "Truth is Beauty."

Reading of Report.

4.—Drama: "The Suspicious Aunt."

5.—Solo: "I'm going to write to Papa."

Reading of Report.

6.—Recitation: "The morning Call."

7.—Dialogue: "Vacation."

8.—Duet: "Evening Hymn."

Reading of Report.

9.—Solo and Chorus: "The stubbs Family."

10.—Chorus: Good Humor Song.

The Glen Ridge Club.

About twenty gentlemen of Glen Ridge and Bloomfield have formed an association which will be incorporated as the Glen Ridge Club. They intend to build on Ridgewood avenue, nearly opposite the railroad station, a commodious house of attractive exterior, with the arrangements and appointments of a first class club. This will afford to the members the usual privileges of such an establishment, and it is also designed to adapt the building to use for evening receptions and other entertainments in which the ladies of members' families may on occasions take part. The general plan is to make the club house a center of social interest. A meeting of the club was held last week at Mr. Darwin's house on Ridgewood avenue, and officers were elected as follows:

President, A. G. Darwin;

Secretary, E. P. Mitchell;

Treasurer, Charles T. Dodd;

Governing Committee, A. R. Brewer,

A. G. Darwin, C. B. De la Vergne, J. C.

Chase, T. Dodd, Joseph D. Gallagher,

W. T. Howe and E. P. Mitchell.

Auditing Committee: W. B. Chambers, George S. Porter, Nathan Russell.

It is expected that the membership will soon be extended by election. Among present members not living at Glen Ridge are Messrs. James C. Beach, John

Newton, and Dr. C. H. Baily. The architect of the new club house is Mr. W. C.

Hazlett, who designed the Music Hall at Short Hills.

Literary Notes.

A volume of translations of Victor Hugo's shorter lyrics, rendered into English by H. L. Williams, will shortly be published by Messrs. Bell, of London.

"Victor Hugo's Life and Works," is the title of a volume that has been for some months in preparation by G. Barnett

Smith. Mr. Smith is author of "A Critical Biography of Shelley," "Poets Novelists," etc. It is now in press and will be issued immediately.

—That literary women have usually been long-lived is shown in the ages

A Reply.

To the Citizen.

I notice an article in your publication of the 27th of June, signed G. T. Moore, in which he states that "in a recent meeting of the committee" some one informed him that I said "there has been trouble and dissension in the association all along, there is no use in denying it, and I am going to bust it up if it makes every member of the association my enemy."

I never stated in committee, or out of it, anything private, to any one that I am going to bust it up. I had no such plan, and whoever informed Mr. Moore told a falsehood. I do not intend to bust the association if I disapproved the whole Town Committee. Respectfully yours,

M. A. DAILEY.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mr. C. R. Bourne has opened a stationery store at No. 100 William street, New York. Orders by mail for any kind of stationery or printing will be promptly attended to. Ladies who are going to any of the summer resorts will find this a convenient way of obtaining their writing paper, etc.

Parties desiring to advertise in the Citizen are requested to send their advertisements to the office of the Citizen and not to the printing office. The office of the Citizen is open to receive advertisements and transact other business on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, between 7:45 and 9 o'clock, and no advertisements will be inserted unless received as above or by mail addressed to the Citizen, P. O.

Box 240.

Zacharias & Smith, bicycle dealers,

Orange, N. J., have a number of second-hand bicycles which they will sell very low. We would advise our readers to call upon them, and test these machines.

On and after Monday, May 4th, the citizens of Bloomfield are invited to call at the

"Fame Depot" of L. R. Chew, opposite Post office, and see the new styles of Mouldings.

All the latest styles can be furnished at New York prices.

Having had a vacation on account of being burned out, I am ready to do all the work in my line which I can procure. I also make mosquito Net Frames and fit ordinary windows complete at $1.00 and $1.25 each.

Having just put in new machines and new tools, I will guarantee to give as good work as can be obtained anywhere. I manufacture all my own picture frames.

List of Letters

Remainder undelivered in the Post Office at Bloomfield, N. J., on July 8, 1885.

Anstetz, Miss. Lynch, Matthew

Burke, Mrs. Emma A. McLaughlin, D. W.

Conover, Fannie Moran, Mrs. Lizzie

Gamble, G. W. Place, J.

Hart, C. E. B. Robinson, Rev. John (6)

Heath, J. Winsor Sheridan, Mrs. E.

Hokstad, Mathias Sigler, A. E.

Holburn, John Thomas, Mary

Kent, Matthew, J. M. Thomas, J. S. K.

Koenig, Frederick Thomas, J. M.

Kuen, T. Tobin, J. M.

Lewis, Nelson Ward, Emma L.

Loe, John Wilson, Jane

Any persons calling for the above will please ask for "advertised" letters.

H. DODD, P. M.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

Lundborg's Perfume, Etc.

MARTIN BROS

BULLETIN.

While it is not claimed that "Hume's Best" is the best flour in the world, it can be said, without fear of contradiction, that there is no better bread flour made in the United States.

Martin Brothers, Agents.

C. F. SCHRADER,

PRACTICAL

Watchmaker and Jeweler,

Glenwood Ave., near the Depot.

Where all classes of